Our mommy taught us to shoot for the stars and always work hard.
We love her and think she is the best mommy ever!

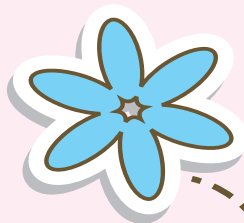

Mom.
You taught us to be the women we are today.
By your kindness, understanding, forgiveness,
most of all "love."

Mom taught us the value of a good walk. Whether it's around town, down the trail or up a mountain, it's something we all enjoy because of her.
If you're going anywhere with Velma, bring your walking shoes!
